CIVIC CENTER PARK • MLK JR. WAY AT ALLSTON WAY • BERKELEY

“Stand up for the Earth with Poetry and Music!”

Poetry Flash, Ecology Center/Berkeley Farmers’ Market, and Pegasus Books Downtown invite you to celebrate writers, nature and community at the 27th Annual Watershed Environmental Poetry Festival.

RESERVE YOUR “RIVER VILLAGE” EXHIBIT SPACE

- River Village is an exhibit/table outreach area for poets, writers, and organizations to share their work. Environmental groups and creative writing or literary community organizations are warmly welcome! Environmentally friendly art or organizations for the community good are welcome.
- Exhibit spaces are located within the grass circle at Martin Luther King, Jr. Park, providing clear view (and sound) of stage performances and readings.
- Your exhibit fee helps us to offset costs, including sanitation facilities, permits, rental fees, insurance, and security. Thank you.

RIVER VILLAGE GUIDELINES

- When a group’s fee is waived, that organization agrees to provide volunteer support to help set up and close the festival. Tasks include: mailing, setting up and breaking down the festival, and trash pickup.

Festival Schedule Saturday, October 15, 2022:

- Strawberry Creek Walk 10:00 - 11:30 a.m.
- River Village set up (unload on Allston Way) 11:00 – 11:45 a.m.
- WATERSHED Festival main stage Noon - 4:30 p.m.
- River Village take down 4:30 - 5:30 p.m.
